About Project I have always had a love for what's black, what's that. Contrast and shit. Aesthetics with a twist Despite the project being in black and white, I have decided to have a third color, there are contrast in black and white, it is the contrast, but in my eyes, a third contrast is just as important, and that is why I have picked a third color, a dot of gold in a sea of black and white, alone, but still in harmony.
